

Arkancide

Arkancide is the unfortunate habit of potential witnesses to the Clintons' dirty dealings in Arkansas suddenly deciding to shoot themselves twice in the back of the head. Police and Coroners in Arkansas, notably Fahmy Malak who answered to Governor Bill Clinton, automatically described these shootings as "suicides."

After Bill Clinton became President the phenomenon spilled over to Washington D.C. when Hillary Clinton's ex-lover Vincent Foster was "Arkancided."

The Arkancide website consists of a history of the Clintons and their misdeeds in Arkansas and the White House, a list of books about the Clintons, a section on Hillary Clinton, which is rapidly growing and becoming increasingly relevant to all of us, and a section on the press and their view of Hillary as "she who can do no wrong."

If you're in a hurry and can't spare the week or two that it would take to follow all these links, at least read the three-part history of Hillary Clinton by Cockburn and St. Clair and the 29 episodes of The Real Hillary Clinton

Arkancide.com is run by someone who doesn't believe in UFO's or that the Moon landings were faked or that JFK was shot by a guy on the grassy knoll or that Elvis is alive (sorry!) or that Princess Diana was liquidated by MI6 or... well any of that type of nonsense.

Conspiracy theorists are idiots and I'm pleased not to be one of them. There was nothing "theoretical" about the Mena/ADFA conspiracy or the Whitewater conspiracy or the Cattle Futures conspiracy or Filegate or Travelgate or Bloodgate or... I'll finish the list when I get a moment!

Here's what to do if you disagree:

Make a list of all the deceased.

Google them.

Verify that they were real people with real connections to the Clintons and who really died violently - and were not just imaginary people invented by anti-Clinton propagandists.

Find out how they were connected to the Clintons and what information they were going to divulge.

Find out when the Clintons became aware of this.

Find out how soon afterwards each potential witness was bumped off.

Explain why so many of these murders had similar MO's (bullets fired into the back of the head, exploding planes etc.).

Explain why so many of these murders were described as suicides by the coroner.

Find out who appointed the coroner.

Here's what to do if you still disagree:

Have a brain transplant or start eating more fish.

Then the only remaining question will be: "was it Bill or Hillary?"

The Boys on the Tracks

Most Arkancide victims had a connection to the Clintons. Some knew too much because they had been involved in the shady dealings in Arkansas; others because they had helped cover up those dealings. Most could have avoided being killed simply by avoiding the Clintons. But the boys were different. They had no Clinton connection and were killed simply for being in the wrong place at the wrong time. This is a very sad story...

Kevin Ives & Don Henry

Two Mysterious Deaths in Arkansas One of the boys' mothers, Linda Ives, has dedicated her life to finding out what really happened to her son, Kevin

Murder and Drugs in Arkansas - Nov 20, 1996 the police chief of Alexander, John Brown, acknowledges he obtained a taped confession from one of the murderers of the two boys

The \(Secret\) Heartbeat of America - May 12, 1997 A New Look at the Mena Story... All of the engineers on the train reported that the boys were lying motionless beneath a tarp... Duffey: "Dan Harmon was on the tracks with the boys the night that they were murdered"... Just prior to the boys' deaths a drop at that location had gone missing. Kevin and Don happened by, were grabbed by Kirk Lane and Jay Campbell, Pulaski County narcotics officers, interrogated, and subsequently killed. They are good friends with (former Clinton friend and convicted drug distributor) Dan Lasater

The Boys on the Tracks - Nov 05, 1999 Book Excerpt: A new look at the 1987 deaths of two Saline County Teens

Excerpt from Obstruction of Justice Linda Ives, mother of Kevin Ives: Our local investigation was headed by our sheriff, Jim Steed. He later went on television bragging about what a thorough investigation he had conducted, and that he felt very sorry for us as parents, but that he had every confidence in Fahmy Malak's ruling. Their investigation was so thorough that they left my son's foot out there for two days in plain sight. Dan Harmon was appointed special prosecutor to head the grand jury probe. However, as his investigation advanced, potential witnesses began turning up dead. Last minute legal maneuvering by Harmon, Garrett, and presiding judge, John Cole, prevented the jurors from revealing their findings in the final report. On Dec 31, 1988 the men and women of the grand jury were sent home frustrated that they had not been allowed to do their job

Arkansas Justice - Jun 13, 1997 former county prosecuting attorney Dan Harmon used his office as a criminal enterprise to extort narcotics and cash, proof that elements of Arkansas law enforcement were corrupted by drugs during Mr. Clinton's tenure as governor. Kevin Ives's mother, Linda Ives, has waged a decade-long battle for the truth in the train deaths and believes Mr. Harmon, Mena and senior Arkansas officials played some role in events connected to her son's murder

Never let this die - May 5, 2007 Linda Ives: May I remind everyone that the information regarding the Mena connection to the Death of My son was verified by the FBI's lead investigator before her investigation was shut down. Jean and I did not look for a Mena connection and did NOT welcome it. We knew it would only make things worse. Page 2: Harmon is out of prison and back in Benton. Keith McKaskle's murder was pinned on the boy who reported his murder. Page 5: Linda Ives: Harmon a few months ago, Harmon was living in Benton and working at the Acura car dealership in Little Rock

Keith McKaskle Had information about the railway murders and said that Kirk Lane and Jay Campbell of the Pulaski County Sheriff's Office were following him around and he was afraid they were going to kill him. He was stabbed 113 times in Nov 1988. Then Jeff Rhodes, who had information about McKaskle's murder, was tortured and shot in the head in Apr 1989

Re: The Janie Ward Case Jeff Rhodes -- April 1989: Called his father who lived in Texas and told him that he had to get out of Arkansas because of what he knew about Kevin and Don's and the McKaskle murders. Was found shot and his body burned in a dump near Benton. Frank Pilcher, Jr. was convicted of the murder. During trial testimony, Pilcher implicated Jordan Ketelsen in McKaskle's murder. Within weeks, Ketelsen was arrested in Texas in a van registered to Ron Ketelsen, and police found more than 400 grams of cocaine

Out of control in Lonoke County - Jun 22, 2006 by Mara Leveritt, author of The Boys on the Tracks. The arrest of Lonoke Police Chief Ronald Jay Campbell, for manufacturing methamphetamine, hindering prosecution, burglary and theft. Arkansas Circuit Judge John

Cole, a veteran of Saline County politics, appointed Benton attorney Dan Harmon to conduct a special grand jury investigation into circumstances surrounding the [railway] deaths... In August 1998 he told Linda Ives, mother of one of the boys, that Campbell and Lane were responsible for her son's murder. They and their boss, Maj. Larry Dill, made no secret of their contempt for Harmon's investigation. Dan Lasater said he'd known he was being watched by federal agents because he had been tipped off by Campbell. Witness Ronnie Godwin: I saw them pick the boy up off the ground and throw him into the back seat. According to Godwin, the car had police hubcaps, three antennas on the trunk and a spotlight on the side. Another witness, "Jerry", saw two men in plain clothes pull up in an unmarked police car. Jerry identified one of the men as Lane; Mike Crook stated that that the boys and these two cops got into an argument and the two cops beat the boys unconscious and threw them into the car and then drove off. Keith McKaskle told Crook that Kirk Lane and Jay Campbell of the Pulaski County Sheriff's Office were following him around and he was afraid they were going to kill him. They did. Immediately after Campbell's arrest, Linda Ives wrote letters reminding Lonoke officials that she had tried to warn them about Campbell when he was hired as the city's police chief. The following law enforcement staff gave Campbell glowing testimonials and therefore need to be watched: Little Rock FBI agents Mike Smith, Brian Marshall and James Handley Jr., Sheriff Donny Ford of Dallas County, Benton police officer Richard Stephen Holland

Clinton's Corrupt Coroner - Fahmy Malak

[Clinton's Ties to Controversial Medical Examiner \[Malak\] Questioned - May 19, 1992](#) Gov. Bill Clinton, the presumptive Democratic presidential nominee, refused for several years to dismiss a state medical examiner whose controversial decrees included a ruling that helped Clinton's mother, a nurse-anesthetist, avoid scrutiny in the death of a patient. Relatives of murder victims formed an organization, "Victims of Malak's Incredible Testimony", or VOMIT. Read about Clinton's mother killing two patients through negligence

Fahmy Malak - Video Excerpts Malak's plan was to rule the boys' deaths a double suicide. However, after conferring with Jim Steed, Saline County Sheriff, they decided no one would accept such a ruling and changed the cause of death to accidental. The families' nightmare battle against the state medical examiner was made more difficult by Governor Clinton's public support of Malak. However, after thirteen long months, the parents were finally able to prove what they had believed all along, that the boys had indeed been murdered

Arkansas coroner Fahmy Malak's corrupt rulings started at the beginning of Clinton's governorship That Malak survived in Arkansas throughout the Bill Clinton years as governor is a testament to Clinton's power. Later, Malak's house was burned down and he took this as a message to keep quiet about what he knew. He later told close friends that if were to be found dead, they should not believe that it was a suicide. Funny or what?

They call for a helicopter to evacuate her to the hospital. When it arrives, she is able to get aboard without assistance from the medics. But Kelly never completes the short hop. She dies en route. According to multiple reports given to journalist/editor Joe L. Jordan, an autopsy later reveals a neat three-inch incision over her main femoral artery. It also shows that the incision came at least three hours after all her other cuts and bruises. Further necropsies will not happen. Clinton has ordered the cremation of all victims. Intimidation of Kathleen Willey She was subpoenaed by Jones' attorneys to be deposed in their case, and after many months of unsuccessful legal maneuvering, was forced to testify. Two days before her testimony, she was threatened by a stranger at dawn while walking in her rural neighborhood. Ron Brown's Body - Dec 15, 2007

It's time for Obama to talk about Brown - Apr 03, 2008 Brown died on Apr 3, 1996 - twelve years ago today - when the USAF plane in which he and 34 others were flying crashed "inexplicably" into a Croatian mountainside near Dubrovnik... So troubled were the Chicago pastors by what they saw as a "conspiracy to divert justice" that they called for the impeachment of President Clinton. Had the pastors known about the likely sabotage of the Dubrovnik airport's aviation systems, the death by gunshot wound to the chest of the manager of those systems, the purloining of Brown's head x-rays, or the "lead snowstorm" visible in the photos of the same, they would have been more outraged still. There was something else the pastors did not know: Brown was desperate after his son Michael had been targeted by an independent council. FR Comments

Nor did they know that Brown had threatened to reveal the still buried details of the China fundraising scandal when President Clinton refused to intervene on Michael's behalf. After Cogswell's revelations, White House troubleshooters went into overdrive. They had the AFIP imposed a gag order on Cogswell while military police escorted him to his house and seized all of his case materials on the Brown crash.

Paula Jones, approached by Clinton bodyguard Amy Ferguson, and lured to a hotel room with Bill Clinton, who demanded oral sex.
[3:07] Mike Isikoff suspended from the Washington Post for trying to tell Paula Jones's story.
[3:33] Paula Jones's sexual harassment suit against Bill Clinton.
[4:00] "A number of women who have had sexual relationships with Bill Clinton have allegedly been given major career boosts in exchange for silence. Beth Coulson received a judicial appointment to the Arkansas Court of Appeals from Clinton. Regina Blakeley landed a job with CBS National in Washington, covering the White House. Likewise, Deborah Mathis secured a lucrative job with the White House Press Corps. Susan Whitacre was made the liaison between the Arkansas State Capitol and the White House. Elizabeth Ward obtained a position with the Clintons' close friends, Hollywood producers Harry Thomasson and Linda Bloodworth-Thomasson. And Jo Jenkins was given a high-level position with AP & L.

[4:46] Jerry Parks, Clinton's former Chief of Security, who had a file on Clinton's affairs over a ten-year period, murdered on Chenal Parkway.

[6:23] "Shortly before Jerry's death, the phone lines at his home were cut, the security system was disconnected and the Clinton files were stolen."

[6:48] The cops tell Jerry's son Gary Parks they were pulled off the case, just when they were making progress.

The Clinton Chronicles (9 of 11)

[1:26] Whitewater. How the Clintons cleaned up with taxpayers' money and got themselves off the hook by pretending to be Christians and by appointing Robert Fiske to head the special investigation into Whitewater.

[4:16] "That same week, the Rose Law Firm began shredding documents." Vincent Foster's signature was on many of them.

[5:33] "During that same week there was also a fire at the Northern Bank Building." This was at a CPA firm on the 14th floor, which held documents relating to Whitewater.

[6:02] "If you go back to Arkansas and you look at the Secretary of State's office, anybody that's ever run for office, in recorded history - you can find out who their major campaign contributors are since day 1, except for one person. Bill Clinton's records at the Secretary of State's office disappeared."

[6:40] Fiske helps cover up the murder of Vince Foster. Clinton keeps the FBI away from the case for seven months. [8:38] One latent fingerprint was visible on the pistol. This print did not belong to Foster. No attempt was made to determine the identity of the person whose print was found on the gun's handgrip. Gunpowder was found on Foster's clothing which did not match the gun found in his hand. Fiske insisted that Foster killed himself but leading forensic experts agree it is highly unlikely that Foster pulled the trigger himself.

She wasn't letting me get away until she made her point. She talked low, the smile faded on the second thank you. I just released her hand from mine and left. I was in a state of shock ...nausea went all over me ..." Yes, nothing says "personal warmth and connection" like a Red Chinese dictator.

By doing it that way, Clinton has made it harder and more expensive for the federal government to quickly review her emails and decide what's OK for the public and what's not. It also makes it a lot harder to tell if Clinton's telling the truth that she turned over all work-related emails. Trial lawyers who are used to suing big companies say this is a classic "data dump." Meme PERFECTLY Illustrates How Badly Hillary Struggles to Keep Her Benghazi Story Straight - 25/10/15 Hillary kept claiming that she cared deeply about her good friend Chris Stevens. At one point, she whipped out her pre-planned righteous indignation to complain, "I would imagine I've thought more about what happened than all of you put together. I've lost more sleep than all of you put together." Hillary admitted in her testimony on Thursday that her good friend Chris Stevens did not have her private email address, and that she could recall no conversations with him after he became ambassador to Libya. The night of his death, she wrote an email with the subject line: "Chris Smith," conflating his death with that of diplomat Sean Smith. She didn't bother speaking with survivors of the attacks until days later.

What she didn't tell us was that her number would be unlisted. Our murdered Libyan Ambassador Chris Stevens didn't have Clinton's e-mail address. Clinton stammered a bit as she confessed this, realizing that she was contradicting her earlier characterization of Stevens as someone she knew and respected, the personal anecdotes that suggested a close relationship and her statement that she had personally asked him to take the job. The Press

This section examines how the press are afraid to upset the Clintons by printing what they know

According to The Elements of Journalism by Bill Kovach and Tom Rosenstiel, the purpose of journalism is to provide people with the information they need to be free and self-governing, and the following nine elements are required to fulfill this task:

1. Journalism's first obligation is to the truth
2. Its first loyalty is to citizens
3. Its essence is a discipline of verification
4. Its practitioners must maintain an independence from those they cover
5. It must serve as an independent monitor of power
6. It must provide a forum for public criticism and compromise
7. It must strive to make the significant interesting and relevant
8. It must keep the news comprehensive and proportional
9. Its practitioners must be allowed to exercise their personal conscience

Unfortunately, as the following stories demonstrate, whenever journalists write about the Clintons, they immediately forget these nine elements and any other principles they may (or may not) have had:

Whitewash: What the Media Won't Tell You About Hillary Clinton, but Conservatives Will How did Hillary come to be the de facto nominee in 2008? What has she done? White House staffers lived in fear of the first lady because her attacks sometimes wouldn't end when her temper tantrums subsided... Myers is the first Clinton loyalist to go public with charges that Mrs. Clinton would brutalize White House aides with her rages... junior White House staffers were ordered not to make eye contact with the first lady lest they anger her... But during her New York senate campaign, the media never touched on these and dozens of other accounts about Mrs. Clinton's temper, portraying her instead as a warm and genuinely likeable personality!!!
